We are all in this weird unknown space, I am trying my best to survive and do what is best. Most of you know that the studio is my sole source of income and have put my life into making it happen. With not being able to hold in person classes that makes it hard for the studio to survive.

With this second wave of shut down, the possibility of fines and the fear of being the contact point if someone was to get the covid virus, I don't feel good about opening against recommendations. If the county goes to a lower level to allow for gyms and fitness centers to open, I will.

I have cut the tuition for Dec in 1/2 and there will be NO costume deposits until we have a better idea of when in the spring a videotaping might be an option.

As I did last spring when I had to shut down, I will not carry forward any balances or past due accounts. I will continue to pay the studio obligations as long as I can. If you have it in your budget to continue paying tuition or a portion of it, know that it will go to helping the studio survive and be here when this all passes.

Thank you to every family stay healthy, say a prayer that this will all pass quickly.
